

News Stories: Head-On Collision along Dogwood

Listening 1: Listening for Main Ideas

Listen to the three news stories. What are the news stories about?

Story 1 main idea: _____

Story 2 main idea: _____

Story 3 main idea: _____

Listening 2: Listening for Details

1. What caused the accident?

2. What was the driver charged with?

3. Who are the suspects?

4. How did the police catch them?

5. How much are taxes being raised?

6. What are residents planning to do?

News Stories: Head-On Collision along Dogwood

Good _____! I'm Chris Gunn and I'm _____ with today's top news stories.

Two people were seriously _____ in a head-on _____ along Dogwood. The driver of one vehicle lost _____ of his car and _____ across the median. _____ say that the driver was texting on his cell phone at the time. The driver has been _____ with _____ driving.

Four _____ in last week's vandalism of the downtown area were _____ this morning. The suspects, all students of Cari High, _____ videos of themselves spray painting the _____ businesses. The police were _____ to the videos by other students at Cari High.

The City of Campbell River has _____ that there will be an _____ in property taxes this year. The city council has said they plan to _____ taxes by 3%. Residents are angry and planning _____. Campbell River is already one of the most _____ taxed areas in the province.

And that's today's top news stories.

News Stories: Head-On Collision along Dogwood

Good evening! I'm Chris Gunn and I'm here with today's top news stories.

Two people were seriously injured in a head-on collision along Dogwood. The driver of one vehicle lost control of his car and drove across the median. Witnesses say that the driver was texting on his cell phone at the time. The driver has been charged with distracted driving.

Four suspects in last week's vandalism of the downtown area were arrested this morning. The suspects, all students of Cari High, posted videos of themselves spray painting the downtown businesses. The police were alerted to the videos by other students at Cari High.

The city of Campbell River has announced that there will be an increase in property taxes this year. The city council has said they plan to raise taxes by 3%. Residents are angry and planning protests. Campbell River is already one of the most heavily taxed areas in the province.

And that's today's top news stories.