Dialogue: Clear Skies

Task 1: Listening for the main idea.

1. What are they discussing?
   ______________________________________
   ______________________________________

Task 2: Listening for details. Answer the questions below.

1. Where is the daughter coming from?
   ______________________________________

2. How did the daughter feel today?
   ______________________________________

3. Why did she feel that way?
   ______________________________________

4. Why did the dad tell her to take the umbrella?
   ______________________________________

5. How likely is it that it will rain tomorrow?
   ______________________________________
Clear Skies

Dad: Erin, You’re home! __________ was school?
Erin: I was so __________ today because of you.
Dad: __________ of me? What did I do?
Erin: You __________ me to take my umbrella to school because it was __________ to rain but it was sunny and __________ all day.
Dad: Oh yeah. __________ about that. I was reading the __________ for tomorrow when I __________ you it was going to rain.
Erin: __________ a lot! Everybody thought I was __________ walking around on a sunny day with my umbrella.
Dad: Oops! Well, you’ll __________ it for tomorrow because tomorrow it is going to rain.
Erin: Are you __________?
Dad: Yes, the forecast said 90% chance of __________.
Clear Skies

Dad: Erin, You’re home! How was school?
Erin: I was so embarrassed today because of you.
Dad: Because of me? What did I do?
Erin: You told me to take my umbrella to school because it was going to rain but it was sunny and clear all day.
Dad: Oh yeah. Sorry about that. I was reading the forecast for tomorrow when I told you it was going to rain.
Erin: Thanks a lot! Everybody thought I was crazy walking around on a sunny day with my umbrella.
Dad: Oops! Well, you’ll need it for tomorrow because tomorrow it is going to rain.
Erin: Are you sure?
Dad: Yes, the forecast said 90% chance of precipitation.