As Soon As We Got There

Task 1: Listening for the main ideas.

Where was the daughter?

______________________________________

______________________________________

Task 2: Listening for details. Answer the questions below.

1. When did the rain start to fall?

___________________________________________________

2. How long did it rain?

___________________________________________________

3. When did the rain stop?

___________________________________________________

4. What advice did the man give the daughter for the next time?

___________________________________________________

5. Do you know what Murphy’s Law is? Write it down.

___________________________________________________

___________________________________________________
As Soon As We Got There

Erin: Hi, Dad. I’m _______________.
Dad: How was _______________?
Erin: _______________!
Dad: Why? What _______________?
Erin: Well, as _______________ as we got there, it _______________ to rain.
Dad: That’s no _______________.
Erin: Yeah, and it _______________ raining the _______________ time we were there.
Dad: That’s too _______________!
Erin: And to make matter’s _______________, the _______________ we packed up our tent, the sun _______________ out.
Dad: Murphy’s _______________ strikes again!
Erin: That was the _______________ camping trip _______________!
Dad: Well, the _______________ time you go camping, you should _______________ the weather _______________ first.
As Soon As We Got There

Erin: Hi, Dad. I’m home.
Dad: How was camping?
Erin: Terrible!
Dad: Why? What happened?
Erin: Well, as soon as we got there, it started to rain.
Dad: That’s no good.
Erin: Yeah, and it kept raining the whole time we were there.
Dad: That’s too bad!
Erin: And to make matter’s worse, the moment we packed up our tent, the sun came out.
Dad: Murphy’s Law strikes again!
Erin: That was the worst camping trip ever!
Dad: Well, the next time you go camping, you should check the weather forecast first.