

Going for a Bite

Conversation: Going Out to Dinner

Amanda calls Jeff on the phone to ask him out for dinner.

A: Hello.

B: Hi, Jeff. It's Amanda.

A: Hi, Amanda. What's up?

B: Well, I was wondering if you'd like to go for a bite?
get something to eat
have dinner

A: Sure. What did you have in mind?

B: I'm in the mood for Italian.
feel like

A: I wouldn't mind Italian.
could go for

I know a really good place downtown.

B: What's the name of it?

A: Mario's. They have the best pasta in town.
tastiest
hottest

B: Where's it located?

A: It's on Oak Street next to the hospital.
on 1st Avenue next to the department store.
on the corner of Pine and Second.

B: Oak Street next to the hospital. I think I can find that.

A: What time do you want meet?

B: Why don't we meet at 6 o'clock?

A: Six o'clock it is then. See you there.

Partner B: Call up other students and ask them to go for a bite. The other students will recommend restaurants. Record the information and mark the restaurants on your map.
